

Retail trade turnover

In January-November 2023, products at 51,3 billion manats, including food, beverages and tobacco products at 28,7 billion manats and non-food products at 22,6 billion manats were sold to the consumers in the retail trade network. Compared to January-November 2022 the retail trade turnover increased in real terms by 3,6 percent, including 2,4 percent for food products, beverages and tobacco products and 5,1 percent for non-food products.

Commodity market during the reporting period is characterized by the following indicators:

Product group	Income from sale, in million manats	As % to January – November 2022
Retail trade turnover	51 278,5	103,6
including:
Food products	26 499,4	102,5
Beverages and tobacco products	2 173,6	100,6
Textile products, clothes and shoes	7 541,8	105,4
Electrical appliances and furniture	2 493,5	104,1
Computers, telecommunication equipment and printing products	542,5	121,4
Pharmaceutical products and medical equipment	1 152,0	99,2
Gasoline and diesel fuel	2 804,4	108,6
Other non-food products	8 071,3	104,0

In January-November 2023, 51,7 percent of resources the consumers spent on purchasing food products in the retail trade network, 4,2 percent - on beverages and tobacco products, 14,7 percent - on textile products, clothes and shoes, 5,5 percent - on gasoline and diesel fuel, 4,9 percent - electrical appliances and furniture, 2,2 percent - pharmaceutical products and medical equipment, 1,1 percent - computers, telecommunication equipment and printing products and 15,7 percent - other non-food products.

Structure of retail trade turnover on January-November 2023

During the reporting period, the value of goods sold by entities of the non-state sector increased in real terms by 3,7 percent compared to the same period of the previous year and amounted to 99,7 percent of the total retail trade turnover.

In January-November 2023, retail trade turnover compared to January-November 2022 increased in real terms by 3,0 percent - for enterprises, 3,7 percent – for private entrepreneurs, 4,1 percent - for markets and fairs.

During the reporting period, in the retail trade network average monthly per capita spending on products amounted to 459,2 manats, including food products, beverages and tobacco products - 256,8 manats and non-food products - 202,4 manats.

Tel: 377 10 70 (22-60)